邀请函 Invitation

Dear friends,

On behalf of the Global Chinese Breast Cancer Organizations Alliance (GCBC), we would like to invite you to the 10th Global Chinese Breast Cancer Organisations Alliance Conference which will be held in Shenzhen from 24th to 26th October 2025.

Due to different cultural background, ethnic Chinese women have special needs for patient support during treatment of breast cancer and recovery. The Global Chinese Breast Cancer Organizations Alliance (GCBC) is a non-governmental, non-profits charity organization founded by a group of breast cancer survivors in 2006, to provide support to breast cancer patients. We also act as a platform to advocate, to promote prevention, to share knowledge of treatment and patient support to all Chinese breast cancer groups worldwide. Our goal is to help provide optimal care and help to the breast cancer patients as well as their families.

GCBC conferences are held every two years providing a great opportunity to learn and share. Over the last eighteen years, GCBC conferences had been held in Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Xi'an, Taichung, Taipei, and Los Angeles. At each conference, participants include medical professionals, research specialists, patient leaders as well as representatives from different breast cancer patient groups worldwide. Inheriting the spirit of the previous Conferences, the 10th GCBC conference will carry the torch further and strive to work harder to achieve our goal. Topics such as patient support skills, trends and projections on breast cancer care, diagnosis and treatment, survivorship, operation and management of patient organizations, patient services, are part of the rich and exciting contents. There will also be inspiring education workshops combine with interesting Q&A interaction with participants.

The conference is a good opportunity for all patient leaders, volunteers, stakeholders, and researchers from the global breast cancer community to meet and share.

We look forward to your participation and welcome you to the Conference.

Yours sincerely,

王天鳳
